

Kerstin Konradsson

Kerstin Konradsson, a Swedish citizen, was born in 1967 and holds a degree in Master of Science in Metallurgy from the Royal Institute of Technology where she graduated in 1991. She has since then been active as Executive and Non-Executive Director within the global material industry. She is an industrialist with a strong track record and long experience from leading companies with an in depth knowledge on technology development, operations, investment projects, strategy and the transition to a sustainable society.

Current assignments

- 2022- Non-Executive Independent Director, Sandvik Materials Technology AB
Member of the Remuneration & Nomination Committee, Sandvik Materials Technology AB
- 2021- Non-Executive Independent Director, Sibelco N.V
Member of the Remuneration & Nomination Committee, Sibelco N.V
Chairman of the Sustainability Committee, Sibelco N.V (Since 2022)
- 2021- Non-Executive Independent Director, Blue Institute

Former Executive positions

- 2012-2019 President Boliden Smelters & CEO Boliden Commercial AB
- 2007-2011 President Åkers Cast Rolls Europe & Asia & CEO Åkers Sweden AB
- 2005-2007 Vice President SSAB Oxelösund AB
- 1995-2005 Various Management positions within SSAB Oxelösund AB
- 1993-1995 Market engineer, Elkem Scanlance AB
- 1991-1993 Research engineer, Royal Institute of Technology

Former Non-Executive positions

- 2016-2021 Non-Executive Independent Director, Höganäs AB
- 2019-2021 Member of the Audit Committee, Höganäs AB
- 2019-2020 Non-Executive Independent Director Swerim AB
- 2013-2016 Non-Executive Director Mefos AB
- 2009-2011 Non-Executive Director Shanxi Åkers TISCO Roll Co. Ltd, 2009-2011
- 2005-2007 Non-Executive Director, Merox AB

Fiduciary positions

Member of the Royal Swedish Academy of Engineering Sciences (IVA) since 2017. Vice Chairman of the Metallurgy & material science department since 2022.